

Quality Assurance Education Reform Project:
Setting standards to improve education quality

SURGe: Support to Ukraine’s Reforms for Governance Program.
Funded by Global Affairs Canada. Implemented by Alinea.

4 million

students study in 16,000+ schools

Through this Reform Project, SURGe works with government institutions and local school principals to set standards and requirements that ensure quality education and safe learning environments for all students across Ukraine. This initiative is part of the Quality Assurance (QA) System transformation, which is one of the New Ukrainian School reform pillars.

Inclusive

environments for all ages, learning abilities & needs are fundamental to success

SURGe supports the State Service of Education Quality (SSEQ) to apply QA instruments and help schools improve the quality of educational activities, build capacity of the SSEQ to work professionally with QA instruments, and train local governments to provide higher quality education in schools throughout their communities,

Collaboration

Is necessary among founders, principals, teachers, children & parents

“Investing in education, one of the largest and most complex social systems, yields the most precious results for our society.”

- Anna Novosad, SURGe Education Sector Lead
